

HIGH SCHOOL WINS VOLUNTEERS LOSE IN BASKETBALL

Basketball enthusiasts of this city had an opportunity last evening at the Nevada theater of witnessing two interesting games. The first was between the girls of the basketball club and the high school team. The high school was victorious by a score of 13 to 8. The team of the basketball club made a remarkable showing considering they have only been practicing a few days and two members of them had only one day's practice. The next contest in which these two clubs engage should prove to be an excellent one, as practicing will be indulged in daily.

The game between the Tonopah Basketball club and the Volunteers resulted in the Volunteers going down to defeat by a score of 30 to 16. The Volunteers outweighed their opponents and played excellent ball, but lack of practice caused their defeat. The Tonopah Basketball club still retain the championship honors and evidently will hold them for some time to come. A large crowd was present to witness both games.

"FARMER'S DAUGHTER" GETS FAIR SIZED AUDIENCE

A fair sized audience greeted "The Farmer's Daughter" last evening at the Pavilion. The drama did not seem to attract the theatergoers of Tonopah as the late shows that have visited this city have been of the highest quality, and few evinced a desire to see how life on the farm compared to life on the desert. The next attraction booked will be "The Holy City," which shows in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 2 and 3.

LARGE CROWD AT DANCE.

The Saturday Night Dancing club gave another one of its delightful dances last evening in the Miners' Exchange hall and a large crowd was present. The floor was in the best of condition and with the excellent music all had the usual good time.

SISTER DIES IN CALIFORNIA.

John R. Schmidt, formerly of the Tonopah fire department, yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of his sister, Miss Louise Schmidt, at Nevada City, California. Mr. Schmidt leaves this morning to be present at the funeral.

Jules Murry's star, Florence Gear, will be seen at the Pavilion on February 16, in the new musical play, "Marrying Mary."

SAM BELFORD LAUNCHES BOOM FOR U. S. SENATOR

warm discussion the matter was put to a vote and the resolution was defeated by a strong majority.

This is taken as indicative of the fate that may await any future attempt in the assembly to block the program of the administration.

The bill prepared by Dodge exempting church property used for worship from taxation was carried after a lively discussion. When the bill was called for third reading and final passage Dodge of Washoe spoke in its behalf, explaining his reasons for aiding the good cause. Dodge was followed by Lem Allen, the sage of Churchill, who in terse language went on record as favoring not only churches, but every individual and corporation contributing to the support of the government. "Them's my sentiments and that's the way I vote," said Allen, and he did. Five other members, Brooks, Bulmer, Charles Kane, Pollard and Ross, voting with him to defeat the measure when the ballot was taken. The vote stood forty-two ayes and six noes. The bill now goes to the senate for action.

Lincoln county has passed through the first stages of the division operation. Without the slightest opposition the bill creating a new county of Clark in the southern end of the state went through the assembly. The measure had the unanimous support of the Lincoln delegation, backed up by a petition from more than a majority of the taxpayers of that section. No amendments were offered to any of the sections of the measure and it also goes to the senate today. It is understood that it will meet smooth sailing in that body.

Opposition which at first threatened this move was overcome when the recalcitrants were convinced that a majority of the residents of Lincoln county are agreed on the matter. The bill gives Clark two senators and two assemblymen. As Lincoln county has generally gone Democratic the dominant party hopes that this new county will go to add still further glory to the Democracy of this state. Republicans say they are willing to take a chance on this matter and for that reason supported the bill. The fight was led by Church of the Lincoln county delegation.

The first union labor measure of the session came up yesterday when Farnsworth introduced a bill specifying the number of hours of labor in mills where gypsum and other products are treated. This is aimed at the three big gypsum plants now in operation near Carson. One of the properties is owned by ex-Governor Adams. It is stated that work in these mills is very injurious to health, far more so than in mills where other mineral is handled, but through a technicality owners are working their employees to ten and twelve hours per day. Farnsworth's measure fixes the hours at eight. The measure was referred to the committee of labor and will probably be reported favorably. It is believed that it will meet with opposition from the interests affected when it appears before the house for final passage.

It continues to be reported that one member of the house is going to tender his resignation within the next few days for the same reason that has made the member unpopular with his colleagues. It is stated that Speaker Giffen purposely overlooked him in his selection of committees. Because of this there is little for the lawmaker to do but draw his salary. So far as known no additional aid has been offered him and his business interests or instinct may prompt him to return to the mines or the farm. The early talk of holding an investigation with a view of other proceedings more definite is not heard so much, many of the legislators feeling that no harm can be done as matters now stand.

Among the bills which came up for second reading were assembly bill No. 28 by Brogan, relating to soliciting fees from employees for permission to retain their positions; assembly bill No. 39, by Brogan, relating to the manner of appointing officers for district court; assembly bill No. 40, by Neil, for the creation of a fourth judicial district in Nevada; assembly bill No. 41, by Neil, relating to county high schools; assembly bill No. 44, by Winters, relating to the establishment of an experimental station in northeastern Nevada; assembly bill No. 45, by Luke, relating to the attendance at high schools of children from other districts.

In addition to the church property bill and the county division measure which came up for third reading and final passage were assembly bill No. 10, by Winter, and relating to the establishment of an experimental station in northeastern Nevada; assembly bill No. 18, by Curtin, relating to the printing of sample ballots at elections.

In the senate but little business was transacted during the morning session and nothing was on the floor for action in the afternoon.

Both houses adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock this morning.

During the afternoon several of the committees were actively at work. A joint meeting of the house and senate committees on ways and means was held in the supreme court chambers to listen to the arguments of Miss Weir, state historian, on the merits of her request for additional appropriations to carry on her work. The judiciary committee also held a lengthy session and a number of measures came up for consideration. Several met a sad fate so far as favorable recommendations are concerned.

The railroad commission was in session with the assembly committee on railroads and corporations during most of the day. Winter of Elko, chairman of this committee, is giving the work his undivided time and with the committee and commission is trying to arrive at a solution of a mooted question full of considerable trouble to the Democrats for the past year or two. It is reported that a public service commission is now spoken of. The purpose of this commission will be to have supervision over the affairs of all corporations or persons dealing with enterprises in which public service is a feature. This would take away the duties of the present commission or add still further to the power of that body as now constituted.

"THE HOLY CITY" AT THE PAVILION FOR TWO NIGHTS

The influence of the Savior of mankind permeates and illumines every scene of "The Holy City," Clarence Bennett's powerful religious play which is to be the offering at the Pavilion theater on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 2 and 3. This is all the more remarkable when the fact is considered that he does not appear upon the stage. Mr. Bennett has so ingeniously and masterfully conjured up the atmosphere of those bitter days, 2000 years ago, when the Son of God met with His death upon the hill of Calvary in expiation for the sins of man that the spectator unconsciously feels the nearness of the Teacher and Guide who is so constantly referred to.

This is one of the reasons that has prompted so many clergymen to heartily endorse the play and to recommend it not only to professing Christians, but to all seekers after truth whatever their faith. The play is not an adaptation of the scriptural story. It is recorded by the evangelists. There is an added story, which deals with the love of Salome, the daughter of Herodias, for Marius, a young Roman, but that is entirely separate and distinct and does not detract from the other story of the persecution, death and glorious resurrection of Christ.

The play is presented by a company of rare excellence. Nearly all of the parts are character parts and players having especial facility in the delineation of strongly marked roles were chosen for the principal characters. The settings are unusually ornate, massive and rich, and the costuming is lavish in the extreme.
